Plan Studio Chair

Designed By Edward Barber & Jay Osgerby, 2026

Plan Studio Chair extends the simple design language of the Plan family with new functionality. The specially developed four-star swivel base naturally integrates the chair's mechanical components while maintaining its light and minimal expression.

Plan Studio Chair is available in several configurations, with or without castors, height adjustment and tilt function. This version features a fully upholstered seat and backrest in textile or leather, offering increased comfort and a softer expression.
